PURPLE Spelling Mastery Rules

Morphographic rule All morphographs in a word have meaning. In the word rebuild there are two morphographs and each has a meaning. Re = again, so in rebuild it means to build again.	Doubling rule When a short word ends cvc and the next morphograph begins with a vowel letter, the final consonant needs to be doubled as in run + er = runner and skip + ing = skipping	The rule for dropping the final E If the final morphograph begins with a vowel then drop the e as in hope / ing = hoping. Otherwise you keep the 'e' as in hope / ful = hopeful.	Y as a vowel letter If 'y' is at the end of a morphograph then it makes the sound of a vowel as in happy and berry	The rule for changing y to i When a word ends with a consonant and -y, you change the y to an i when adding a morphograph on the end of the word as in pity + ful = pitiful and happy + er = happier	Adding -es to words with s, sh or ch If a word ends in a 's', 'ch' or 'sh' you add an -es to make the plural of the word as in match becomes matches and flash becomes flashes	Adding -es to words ending with x In words that end in 'x' the 'x' makes a /ks/ sound. When words end in a 's' you add the -es to make the word plural as in boxes and fixes
Contractions A contraction is made of two words that have a part missing which is substituted with an apostrophe as in was not = wasn't and has not = hasn't	Adding -es to words ending with a consonant and y When a word ends with a consonant and -y, you change the y to an i and add es as in baby = babies and worry = worries	W as a vowel letter If 'w' is at the end of a morphograph then it makes the sound of a vowel as in show and know	Adding -es to words ending with z If a word ends in a 'z' you add an -es to make the plural of the word as in buzz becomes buzzes	Long o spelled 'oa' When you hear the long o sound in the middle of a word it is usually spelled with an 'oa' as in boat, coat and float	Long a spelled 'ai' When you hear the long a sound in the middle of a word it is usually spelled with 'ai' as in fair, faint and trail	Long o at the end of words When you hear the long o at the end of words it is spelled 'ow' as in show, grow, low
Long e in the middle of words When you hear the long e sound in the middle of a word it is spelled 'ie' as in grief, thief
