TEAL Spelling Mastery Rules

Morphographic rule All morphographs in a word have meaning. In the word rebuild there are two morphographs and each has a meaning. Re = again, so in rebuild it means to build again.	The rule for dropping the final E If the final morphograph begins with a vowel then drop the e as in hope / ing = hoping. Otherwise you keep the 'e' as in hope / ful = hopeful.	Doubling rule When a short word ends cvc and the next morphograph begins with a vowel letter, the final consonant needs to be doubled as in run + er = runner and skip + ing = skipping	Changing 'y' to 'i' When a word ends with a consonant and -y, you change the y to an i when adding a morphograph on the end of the word as in pity + ful = pitiful and happy + er = happier	W as a vowel letter If 'w' is at the end of a morphograph then it makes the sound of a vowel as in show and know	Y as a vowel letter If 'y' is at the end of a morphograph then it makes the sound of a vowel as in happy and berry	Adding 'es' to words ending with s, z, sh or ch If a word ends in a 's', 'z', 'ch' or 'sh' you add an -es to make the plural of the word as in match becomes matches and flash becomes flashes
Adding 'es' to words ending in x In words that end in 'x' the 'x' makes a /ks/ sound. When words end in a 's' you add the -es to make the word plural as in boxes and fixes	Adding 'es' to words ending with a consonant-and-y When a word ends with a consonant and -y, you change the y to an i and add es as in baby = babies and worry = worries	Contractions A contraction is made of two words that have a part missing which is substituted with an apostrophe as in wasnot = wasn't and hasnot = hasn't	Adding -en to words ending with 'w' When a word ends with the letter w and you add e-n, you drop the e as in show+en = shown and draw+en = drawn	X acting as two consonant sounds In some words the 'x' represents the consonant sounds of /ks/ as in fix (f-i-ks) and box (b-o-ks)	Adding -al to words ending -ic before adding -ly When a word ends in the letters i-c, you must add the morphograph a-l before adding l-y as in magically and basically	Plural words ending with -ves Some words that end in the sound /ff/ have the letters v-e-s in the plural. You can always hear the sound /vv/ in the plural as in wife - wives Leaf - leaves
Doubling rule (long words) When a long word ends cvc and the next morphograph starts with a vowel you double the final consonant as in transfer + ing = transferring		Adding -or to words that use an -ion ending How do i know if i need 'or' or 'er'? If a form of a word ends 'ion' then use the ending 'or' as in instruct - a form of the word is instruction therefore instructor is speller with 'or'
